

Welcome to AIR in G

Arts in Rural Gloucestershire

Welcome to the 2016/17 season of AIR in G's community touring programme full of exciting events coming to village halls across the county during Autumn 2016 and Spring 2017. Over the years, audiences have come to recognise that an AIR in G event in their local hall guarantees artists of the highest calibre working across a rich mix of genres.

A couple of this year's highlights include the UK's very own Cuban Buena Vista band 'Son Yambu' and Apphia Campbell's critically acclaimed performance inspired by the life of Nina Simone 'Black is the Colour of my Voice'. Back by popular demand are the 'Churchfitters' who received rave reviews last year as well as the incredibly talented Mazaika who return to the scheme after a six year break; well worth trying to catch! If you're looking for an extra special treat for younger audiences why not look at coming along to 'The Wheels on Debussy', a fabulous classical music workshop for preschool age children, or Tutti Frutti's magical Christmas production 'Underneath a Magical Moon' which retells the story of Peter Pan through the eyes of Wendy Darling – the perfect festive treat!

Please check out all the highly affordable AIR in G performances taking place at a venue near you. They offer a great chance to get together with friends and neighbours for an evening that's sure to captivate and delight.

Underneath a Magical Moon: Tutti Frutti

This Events Guide is available in large print. Please call 01989 566644.

"A truly brilliant/fantastic/excellent/mesmerizing evening with many people thinking that it was the best or at the very least one of the best acts we have had. It was loved by all and all I can add is that we were privileged to have three such talented musicians at Sheepscombe Village Hall."

21 Pounds

THEATRE

Slave owners were encouraged to place an exact value on each of their slaves so they could claim compensation in what was the biggest government bail-out until the banking crash of 2008. Based on actual case histories, this is the story of Hannah, a slave girl living in Gloucestershire. Through her story, we meet a cast of slave-owners, lawyers, abolitionists and, of course, the slaves whose destinies they struggled over.

Party Vibes

THEATRE

Sketch group Birthday Girls bring you a brand new, balls out, body-rocking comedy show. Expect silly, odd, and sometimes scatological sketches with loud music and try-hard dancing that will leave you pumped and ready for a night out! Party Vibes has enjoyed sold out runs in Edinburgh and London and received excellent reviews. It's a raucous, rude show with loud music and lots of cheekiness so suitable for any adults that are game for a laugh!

ALAW

MUSIC

ALAW unites the talents of three exceptional musicians whose subtle interplay is a joy to watch. Drawing on a wealth of experience they take their audiences on a musical journey – a tune brought back from a tour in Bulgaria or collaboration in India – but at the heart of their set is a passion for the old tunes of Wales. From sublime slow airs to dazzling dance tunes and storming songs, ALAW promise a performance of joyful and life affirming music.

Higgledy Piggledy Pie

CHILDREN

When the king asks for a higgledy piggledy pie the royal chefs are thrown into a spin, especially when they find the cupboard is bare! The chefs are helped by their vegetapals to collect the special nursery rhyme ingredients. How many rhymes will it take to make a higgledy piggledy pie, and will it be ready before the dish runs away with the spoon? Popular rhymes are brought to life using fruit, veg, and a variety of kitchen objects. The royal chefs show that playing with your food is not always a bad idea.

Remember, Remember

THEATRE

We all remember Guy Fawkes, the man with the big hat, dodgy moustache and explosive personality. But is he really the one whose effigy should be burnt every November 5th? Caught in the act, was he the real revolutionary, or the ringleader's puppet? Fast forward 400 years and Jenny Wren Productions – The Hound of the Baskervilles and Burke and Hare – investigate what it means to be the 'Guy' everyone remember, remembers.

Black Is The Colour Of My Voice

THEATRE

Direct from sell-out performances in across the globe Apphia Campbell embarks on her debut UK tour. Inspired by the life of Nina Simone, 'Black Is The Color Of My Voice' follows a successful jazz singer and civil rights activist seeking redemption after the untimely death of her father. She reflects on the journey that took her from a young piano prodigy destined for a life in the service of the church, to a renowned jazz vocalist at the forefront of the Civil Rights Movement.

Shanties By The Way

MUSIC

The Cabin Buoys are regular providers of entertainment aboard HMS Warrior and HMS Victory in Portsmouth Historical Dockyard as well as well as The Edinburgh Festival, The Cutty Sark, oilrigs, village halls, folk clubs and bandstands. Wherever, a lively evening is assured, full of sea songs, shanties, jigs, reels, old time music hall songs and maybe a little acoustic rock 'n' roll t'boot. Shep Woolley links the music with light hearted banter with musicians Garry Blakely and Bill McKinnon.

Carradine's Cockney Singalong

MUSIC

Join Mr Tom Carradine as he presents an evening of timeless songs with audience participation. Let him lead you in a traditional cockney sing-a-long, with songs from the music hall era, WWII and II, the West End stage and traditional popular songs from across the decades. A good old-fashioned knees-up! A music hall and old time music aficionado, the show's creator Tom Carradine wanted to capture the flavour and atmosphere of a good old fashioned knees up and recreate it for audiences young and old.

Little Frankenstein

CHILDREN

Puppeteer Frank Norman Stein is rehearsing his new show 'George the Dragon Slayer' but he's finding it really difficult with his badly made puppets that keep falling apart! Taking inspiration from Dr Frankenstein he creates a new real live puppet: creature George emerges from the workshop, innocent and willing to learn, but Frank is so intent on his rehearsal that he neglects to look after his new child. Little Frankenstein will tickle the imagination of everyone from 5–105 years old.

Son Yambu

MUSIC

Son Yambu play authentic Cuban son, the intoxicating fusion of Spanish and African rhythms that gave rise to salsa. The band features a new generation of Cuban musicians who are all passionate about maintaining the traditions of the genre, continuing the Buena Vista legacy that put Cuban music back on the map in 1997. They give this irresistible music a contemporary edge, bringing their audiences a truly sensational, authentic Latin music experience.

MUSIC

The Churchfitters are a folk band like no other. The four virtuoso musicians from England and France strut their stuff on a stage that bristles with instruments: flute, banjo, dulcimer, tin whistle, guitar, ukulele, stand up dustbin bass and a sackful of percussion. Throw in some exquisite harmonies, a slew of startlingly original songs and a few jokes that create instant rapport and you've got a high energy show that leaves audiences cheering for more.

Spillikin

THEATRE

In Spillikin we see the pivotal moments of a relationship lasting from youth to old age; snapshots of a faltering courtship; adultery, companionship, the husband's illness, and finally the wife's diagnosis of Alzheimer's. The husband builds a perfected robotic version of himself to be deployed after his death, able to give order to the confusion. As her mind deteriorates their exchanges acquire a secret language expressed as a duet. And, on some level, their love survives.

Tommaso Starace

MUSIC

An aficionado of black and white photographs, saxophonist Tommaso Starace explores through his compositions the iconic photos of Master of Photography Gianni Berengo Gardin. Starace has chosen 14 images from the vast portfolio of Berengo that tell a story and create an atmosphere of 'cinematic jazz' for the audience. Each image has its own story that Starace and his quartet narrate through the use of music specifically written for each image.

Gilbert (No Sullivan)

THEATRE

Now immortalised for his enduringly popular partnership with composer Arthur Sullivan, W.S. Gilbert was, in his own right, a playwright and master of comic verse. The Foundry Group, the team behind hit shows 'Those Magnificent Men' and 'Big Daddy vs. Giant Haystacks', has adapted three of his funniest tales for this new show. Performed by The Ornate Johnsons', Gilbert (No Sullivan) is the perfect night out for aficionados and a great introduction to one of England's wittiest writers.

Old Herbaceous

THEATRE

Giles Shenton keeps us engrossed, entertained, amused and emotionally engaged. Old Herbaceous is an acute and sometimes hilarious observation of relationships between the classes in a gentler, simpler age. Sprinkled with witticisms and epithets the evening blossoms into gentle humour much in the traditionally understated English style of the early 20th century. Giles Shenton truly lives the part and makes us feel it's a private chat from a bygone and comforting age.
